You Say
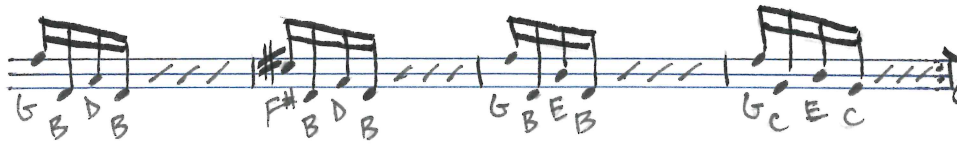

Words and Music by Lauren Daigle

key: G

Intro: G / / / | Bm / / / | Em / / / | C / / / :||

        G                              Bm                    Em    C
1. I keep fighting voices in my mind that say I'm not enough
        G                              Bm              Em    C
   Every single lie that tells me I will never measure up
        G                            Bm                   Em    C
   Am I more than just the sum of every high and every low?
         G                            Bm                   Em    C
   Remind me once again just who I am, because I need to know

Chorus:
                      G                      Bm
       You say I am loved when I can't feel a thing
                    Em                    C
       You say I am strong when I think I am weak
                      G                    Bm
       You say I am held when I am falling short
                       Em                    C
       When I don't belong, oh You say that I am Yours
                 G            Bm
       And I believe, oh I believe
             Em              C
       What You say of me, I believe

        G                                  Bm                    Em    C
2. The only thing that matters now is everything You think of me
        G                      Bm       Em    C
   In You I find my worth, in You I find my identity, oh-oh

        G                      Bm             Em    C
3. Taking all I have and now I'm laying it at Your feet
        G                          Bm                    Em    C
   You have every failure God, and You'll have every victory, oh-oh
