Key: G

Intro: 6/8 C // III | G // III | D // III | Em // III ||

                  C      G                                  D
1. You are not hidden... There's never been a moment
                  Em
      You were forgotten
                  C                  G                                  D
      You are not hopeless... Though you have been broken
                  Em
      Your innocence stolen

Pre-Chorus 1:

          C                                  G/B                  D          Em
I hear you whisper underneath your breath
          C                                  G/B                  D
I hear your S. O. S., your S. O. S.

Chorus 1:

          G          Am<sup>7</sup>                                  Em
I will send out an army to find you
                  C                                  Em
In the middle of the darkest night
                  C                                  G
It's true, I will rescue you

                  C      G                                  D
2. There is no distance... That cannot be covered
                  Em
      Over and over
                  C                  G                                  D
      You're not defenseless... I'll be your shelter
                  Em
      I'll be your armor

Pre-Chorus 1:

          C                                  G/B                  D          Em
I hear you whisper underneath your breath
          C                                  G/B                  D
I hear your S. O. S., your S. O. S.
