Chorus 2:
                                                      Bm<sup>7</sup>
         And as You speak a hundred billion creatures catch Your breath
         Evolving in pursuit of what You said
             Bm^7
         If it all reveals Your nature so will I
                                    Bm<sup>7</sup>
         I can see Your heart in everything You say
                                 D<sub>/F#</sub>
         Every painted sky a canvas of Your Grace
            Bm^7
                           G
         If creation still obeys You so will I

Bridge:
                                                   Bm^7 A^6
   If the stars were made to worship so will I
                                                    Bm<sup>7</sup> A<sup>6</sup>
   If the mountains bow in reverence so will I
                                                   Bm^7 A^6
   If the oceans roar Your greatness so will I
                                                        Bm<sup>7</sup> A<sup>6</sup>
   For if everything exists to lift You high so will I
                                                    Bm^7 A_{/D}
   If the wind goes where You send it so will I
                                              Bm^7 A_{/D}
   If the rocks cry out in silence so will I
                                                Bm^7 A_{/D}
   If the sum of all our praises still falls shy
                                                  Bm^7 A_{/D}
   Then we'll sing again a hundred billion times
